Forest Hills Apartments Open Today
The Washington Post, Times Herald (1959-1973); Jun 19, 1965; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The Washington Post (1
pg. E2

Forest Hills Apartments Open Today

Forest Hills Apartments, in the 1400 block of Southern Ave., Prince Georges County is being opened this weekend by Scuderi Brothers.

Alfred and Frank Scuderi are owners and developers of the Marlow Heights Regional Shopping Center and builders and developers of the Marlow Heights apartments.

Their newest project consists of 350 garden type units in 25 buildings. The project, predominantly 1-bedroom, also includes some 2-bedroom, and 3-bedroom units.

Forest Hills is designed with large room sizes. Care was used to preserve the large trees on the site.

The new Cafritz Memorial Hospital is being built across the street from Forest Hills.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.